

LEADERSHIP

This course is intended for all persons who need to analyse leadership and related theories in a work context. The Course will be useful to students who are working within the Public Sector, Local Government, commercial or community environment. It will enable students to gain insight into the role of leadership within a work context, and thus providing them with the skills and knowledge to add value to one's job. This course will also provide value to public officials who are involved in integrated development planning or public sector management and administration specialists.

The Student would gain competencies from this course to be capable of:

- Explaining the concept of leadership.
- Differentiating between leadership and management.
- Analysing and comparing leadership theories.
- Applying the different roles and qualities of leadership in a work context.